

`fs/filesystems.c` contains the `file_systems` variable, routines for registering and unregistering filesystems together with functions for handling struct `filesystem-type` including searching for a filesystem type during mount (2).